

victory would mean a blow to the textile industries of the State. Governor Foss placed his record before the people and asked for support. It was expected because of an off-year the total vote would fall off considerably, but the average was well maintained.

The make-up of the remainder of the State ticket was still in doubt at midnight, although both branches of the Legislature were apparently Republican.

Governor Foss issued the following statement: "The people have won their second great victory over the rule, in spite of the most scandalous booddy campaign ever waged in this State. Massachusetts has spoken unmistakably for an honest revision of the tariff and for a business administration of the Commonwealth. The national significance of this election is incalculable. The rest of the country will follow the lead of Massachusetts."

Foss's Vote Reduced. Boston, November 7.—Returns from 57 out of 100 precincts in the State, including Boston, give Foss, Democrat, 101,333; Frothingham, Republican, 91,972. The same districts last year gave Foss, Democrat, 113,232; Frothingham, Republican, 95,134. The same ratio, if maintained throughout the State would make Foss's plurality about 8,000.

Foss Carries Boston. Boston, November 7.—Governor Foss carried the city of Boston by a plurality of 21,352. The total vote of the city was: Foss (Democrat), 49,561; Frothingham (Republican), 28,209. The total vote last year was: Foss, 55,553; Draper, 27,938. Mayor Fitzgerald estimated at 7,435.

Luce Wins by 6,750. Boston, November 7.—Complete returns in the State election to-day for the State Governor and Lieutenant Governor, 208,700; Walsh, Democrat, 241,950; Luce's plurality 41,750.

New York TAMMANY'S HOLD SHAKEN. Republican-Fusion Party Shows Remarkable Strength.

New York, November 7.—Tammany Hall's hold on New York City was shaken to-day in a battle of the ballots in which local unions were mainly at stake. The Democrats successfully defended their ancient strongholds of Manhattan and the Bronx, but by greatly reduced pluralities. Queens county also stood by the Democrats, but the Republican-Fusion candidate made nearly a clean sweep of Brooklyn and probably divided honors in the little borough of Richmond.

A year ago Manhattan and the Bronx boroughs gave Governor Dix a plurality of 68,839 and elected a Democratic Supreme Court justice. To-day Robert L. Fowler, the Democratic candidate for surrogate, carried New York county with a maximum plurality of about 17,000. The Democrats elected their candidate for sheriff by about 8,000, and the State Democratic candidate for Supreme Court justice in the First Judicial District pulled through by a bare 3,000. Francis M. Scott, the fourth justice elected, was inducted by both parties.

The Republicans gained eight Assemblymen in New York county, and will send fifty members to the body out of the total delegation of thirty-five. Three Republican candidates for Supreme Court justices in the Second Judicial District, which comprises Kings, Queens and Richmond counties, were elected. William Willett, the Democratic candidate, who was charged with buying his nomination, ran about 8,000 behind Callahan, who is so close to the last man on the Republican list that his fate remained in doubt until the last district was heard from. The Republicans also elected three in Kings county by about 14,000. In nineteen out of twenty-three districts in Brooklyn the Fusionists gained six Assemblymen.

Vote on Supreme Court Justices, First District complete, 20,000 (Democrat-Fusion), 10,000 (Republican), 10,000 (Fusionist). Second District, 10,000 (Democrat), 10,000 (Fusionist), 10,000 (Republican). Complete returns for surrogate in Manhattan and the Bronx showed Fowler (Democrat) had a plurality of 15,916 over Madisonson (Fusionist).

An Unexpected Landslide. New York, November 7.—From a Democratic majority of 74, the New York State Assembly to-day turned overwhelmingly Republican. At midnight all indications point to the Republicans in the lower chamber having a majority of 55. This the Democratic majority in the lower chamber, which existed during the first half of Governor John A. Dix's administration, will be lacking next year. The present Senate holds over.

In the unexpected landslide the Democrats were able to capture only three seats in the Republican majority, whereas all over the Commonwealth Democratic Assemblymen fell by the wayside. In one instance—in Schenectady—Herbert M. Merrill, a Socialist, was elected where a Democrat had held the seat.

Returns up to midnight indicated that the Republicans will have 101 members in the lower branch, representing a net gain of thirty-nine seats. In the avalanche Daniel B. Frazier, Speaker of the present House, managed to hold his seat, and Lewis Stuyvesant Clark, of Dutchess county, is expected to get in by the narrow margin of about fourteen votes.

In Greater New York the Republicans defeated nine Democrats, while in Kings county an equal number of Democratic candidates met defeat. The election, besides an Assemblyman of their entire city ticket, by the Socialists in Schenectady, was one of the most striking incidents of the voting up-State.

An Auburn, Thomas M. Osborne, one of the organizers of the Democratic League, was defeated for Mayor by Thomas H. O'Neill, Republican. Two vacancies on the State Supreme Court bench were filled by elections.

Ohio CITIES GO DEMOCRATIC. Columbus, Cincinnati and Cleveland Give Decisive Pluralities.

Columbus, O., November 7.—The Democrats were swept into power in the three largest cities of Ohio to-day—Columbus, Cincinnati and Cleveland returning decisive Democratic pluralities. A feature of the elections throughout the State was the large Socialist vote. In Columbus, Ely, the Socialist candidate for Mayor, according to early returns, was running a close race with Mayor Marshall, the Republican nominee for second place, while George J. Kern, Democrat, had been elected by from 4,000 to 6,000 plurality.

In Cincinnati Mayor Louis Schwab, running for re-election, with the Republican endorsement, was defeated by Henry T. Hunt, Democrat, by probably 6,000. In Cleveland Newton D. Baker, Democrat, and political heir to the late Tom L. Johnson, was elected Mayor by probably 20,000, while practically the entire Democratic ticket is elected with him. In Toledo Brand Whitlock, Independent, has apparently been elected for a fourth term by a plurality in the neighborhood of 2,000.

Returns Favor Democrats. Cincinnati, O., November 7.—The Times-Star (Republican) says that Henry T. Hunt, Democrat, probably is elected Mayor of Cincinnati over Dr. Louis Schwab.

Progressive Leads Garfield. Fairview, O., November 7.—Fletcher D. Melin, pledged Progressive candidate for delegate to the Ohio Constitutional Convention from Lake county in 1912, is leading by 400 votes James B. Garfield, Secretary of the Interior under President Roosevelt, who refused to pledge himself.

Cleveland Goes Democratic. Cleveland, O., November 7.—Cleveland, which two years ago went Republican, electing Herman C. Bachu Mayor over the Tom L. Johnson ticket, to-day returned to the Democratic fold. Newton D. Baker, Tom L. Johnson's political heir, Mayor over Frank C. Hogan, Republican, by about 18,000 majority.

The entire Democratic city ticket won with the exception of five Councilmen. Baker was City Solicitor during the entire eight years of the Johnson regime. He favors equal votes for women and is pledged for all progressive issues. In his campaign he developed a program of lighting plant for municipal betterment generally and all the issues for which Johnson stood.

Socialists Cast Big Vote. Cleveland, O., November 7.—The feature in the municipal contests throughout the State is the large socialist vote. In Cleveland, Socialists elected Mayors to-day. These cities are Lorain, St. Mary's, Martins Ferry, Marietta, Mt. Vernon, Barboursville, Salem and Cayuga Falls. In Canton it will take the official count to decide whether the socialists are elected. In Turin, Democrat is elected, as unofficially, Turnbull wins by three votes.

Leaders of the party here attribute the increase in the socialist vote to organized proselyting. New Jersey REPUBLICANS GAIN. They Will Control Both Branches of New Jersey Legislature.

Trenton, N. J., November 7.—Returns at midnight indicated that the Republicans will control both branches of the Legislature next winter. Gloucester county, which according to early returns, was in doubt, elected a Republican Senator, and this will make the Senate stand eleven Republicans to ten Democrats.

The Assembly will be made up of approximately thirty-eight Republicans to twenty-two Democrats. Last year's Assembly consisted of forty-two Democrats and eighteen Republicans. The Democrats elected about twelve of their seventeen candidates for sheriff. The election of the sheriffs in snowed gains of the Republican number of counties that were carried through by Governor Wilson on the connection with his candidacy for the governorship.

The counties that last winter had Democratic Assemblies, but which next year will be represented by Republicans, are Bergen, Essex, Gloucester, Morris, Somerset and Union. The election is significant in the defeat of a number of men whose election was vigorously advocated by Governor Woodrow Wilson in the campaign of the State during the last few weeks.

Among the defeated Democratic candidates is State Senator Harry S. Osborne, of Essex county, in whose behalf Governor Wilson made an appeal to the voters in Essex county in an address the night before last. Governor Wilson asked for Osborne's election on the ground that the Senator last winter had been one of the strongest supporters of the Governor's policy. Another Wilson supporter who was defeated was Assemblyman Lamont of Somerset county, who ran for State Senator this time, and in whose behalf Governor Wilson made speeches in that county last Saturday.

The Republicans elected their entire Assembly ticket in Essex county, where the Democratic organization candidates were nominated, and in whose behalf Governor Wilson declined to go to Essex to speak.

Monmouth County Democratic. Monmouth, N. J., November 7.—Monmouth county went Democratic to-day, all the Democratic candidates appearing to have been elected. John W. Blouin was elected State Senator and Edmer H. Goran and John R. Taylor, Democrats, are re-elected to the Assembly. Browning Is Elected. Trenton, N. J., November 7.—Returns from the First Congressional District show that William J. Browning, Republican, was elected to succeed the late Henry Loudenslager by from 3,000 to 4,000 majority.

Rhode Island REPUBLICAN VICTORY. G. O. P. Seems to Have Won All Along the Line in Rhode Island.

Providence, R. I., November 7.—Returns at midnight from more than half the State indicate a general Republican victory. Governor Pothier being returned to office apparently by a greatly increased plurality. With 108 out of 184 voting precincts heard from, the vote was: Pothier, 21,119; Waterman (Democrat), 16,530. The same districts last year gave Pothier 18,850; Waterman, 18,119. The Legislature will be largely Republican.

Kentucky LANDSLIDE IN KENTUCKY. Democratic Ticket Swept Into Office by More Than 20,000.

Louisville, Ky., November 7.—Kentucky, for years considered in the balance between the Democrats and Republicans, to-day went back into the ranks of the former in a landslide victory. Returns up to 9:30 to-night indicated that James B. McCreary, Democratic candidate for Governor, had been elected by from 20,000 to 40,000 majority. His opponent was Judge Edward C. O'Neal.

The Herald and Post, both of which supported the Republican ticket, which conceded McCreary's election by 40,000, but figures taken from all sources hardly justify such an estimate. The returns have surprised even the most optimistic Democrats, most of whom said the election would be a landslide. As it is, the Republican majority of 7,000 by which the present administration went into office was shattered, and the Democratic State ticket will go into office more strongly endorsed than has any ticket in years.

The Herald to-morrow will attribute Republican defeat to what it considers unpopularity of present Republican national and State administrations in Kentucky. Both stood for the county unit prohibition election plan and advancement of methods of governing State institutions.

Herald Concedes Defeat. Louisville, Ky., November 7.—At 8 o'clock to-night the Herald, which supported the Republican State ticket, conceded defeat to United States Senator Mitchell. The Herald will say to-morrow morning: "An unpopular national and State Republican administration was the cause of the Democratic victory in Kentucky."

Ollie James for Senate. Louisville, Ky., November 7.—One of the results of the "conceded" overwhelming Democratic victory in Kentucky is that a Democratic State Legislature will be sure to elect Ollie James, United States Senator, and Democratic nominee for United States Senator, to succeed Senator James H. Paynter.

Mississippi SOCIALISTS STRONG. They Poll Surprisingly Large Vote in Mississippi.

Jackson, Miss., November 7.—As was accepted as a certainty before the election, Mississippi voters elected the entire Democratic State ticket to-day. The strength shown by the Socialist candidates, however, was an extraordinary incident.

In the presidential election of 1908 Socialist votes totaled 978. In 1910 at the congressional election, 1,500. To-day James T. Lester, candidate for Lieutenant-Governor, in opposition to Theodore G. Bilbo, Democratic nominee, if the ratio shown by meagre figures at hand at midnight is maintained, will have in excess of 6,000. Lester led his ticket, which was the only opposition to the Democratic nominees.

It is estimated that not more than 40,000 votes were polled, about one-third of a normal vote. Heavy Socialist Vote. Jackson, Miss., November 7.—Early returns from to-day's election in Mississippi, which indicated the usual Democratic victory for the entire State ticket, gives James T. Lester, Socialist candidate for Lieutenant-Governor, in opposition to Theodore G. Bilbo, Democratic nominee, a heavier vote than anticipated.

Democrats May Win. Kansas City, Mo., November 7.—Early returns from to-day's congressional election in the Second Kansas District for the seat of the late A. C. Mitchell, progressive Republican, indicate the election of Joseph Taggart, Democrat, by a small majority.

Looks Safe for Earle. Philadelphia, Pa., November 7.—Returns from 672 election divisions of the 1,197 in the city give Earle, Republican, a majority over Blankenburg, Reformist. These figures point to the election of Earle by from 15,000 to 20,000 majority. The remainder of the Republican ticket is apparently elected by about the same majority.

Earle's Majority Going. Philadelphia, Pa., November 7.—Earle's majority has been reduced to less than 2,000. The missing divisions are in strong independent wards, and Earle's majority may be entirely wiped out. Victory for Blankenburg. Philadelphia, Pa., November 7.—The North American at 1:45 o'clock this morning announced that Rudolph Blankenburg, the war horse of reform, had been elected Mayor over George H. Earle, Jr., Republican. It was stated that the office of United States Senator Penrose admitted that Blankenburg had been elected by between 300 and 1,000 majority. Blankenburg was nominated by the Democratic and Keystone parties, and the fight he made will be memorable for years to come.

New Mexico Both Claim Election. Albuquerque, N. M., November 7.—Bursum, Republican, and McDonald, Democrat, for Governor, both claim election on meagre early returns.

Divide the Judgeships. Chicago, November 7.—Returns from half of the 1,197 precincts in to-day's Cook county judicial election indicate the Republicans and Democrats divided evenly on the Superior Court Judgeships, and that the Democrats elected the one circuit judge. A higher party for the judges proposition was defeated.

Maryland In Doubt at Midnight. Baltimore, Md., November 7.—The American, Republican, in an extra, covering the election situation up to midnight, declares that the early returns from Baltimore and estimates from the counties would indicate that Goldsborough, Republican, had been elected Governor by about 5,000 plurality.

The Sun, Democrat, says that the returns from Baltimore and the counties up to the same hour were not sufficient to indicate the results either on the State or city tickets. Hanna Claims State. Baltimore, Md., November 7.—Republican State Chairman J. B. Hanna claims the State for Goldsborough, Republican candidate for Governor, based on small Republican gains in the city and State.

Republicans Increase Vote. Baltimore, Md., November 7.—Thirty-nine precincts out of 211 in Baltimore, Republican, for Governor, 4,473; Gorman, Democrat, 3,813. Of the counties heard from the Republicans have carried Caroline and Carroll, which four years ago gave Crothers, Democrat, a majority.

California UNION LABOR LOSES. Returns Indicate Victory for Municipal Conference Candidates.

San Francisco, November 7.—Scattered returns from the municipal election to-day indicate a victory for the municipal conference candidates for supervisors over the union labor candidates. The conference represented the Democratic, Republican and good government parties. This coalition was victorious on September 26, when a direct primary elected James Rolph for the mayoralty over J. H. McCarthy, union labor, by a majority vote. Greatest interest to-day centered in the fight between Hawthorne, conference candidate, and Charles M. Fickert, union labor incumbent, for District Attorney. Fickert had led in the primaries, but to-night's returns showed the result in doubt.

The only other election in California to-day was at Sacramento, where M. R. Beard, Democrat, was re-elected Mayor. Alton Stewart, Socialist candidate, ran ahead of Frank Suttin, Republican.

South Carolina Col. Grace Is Lead. Charleston, S. C., November 7.—At 1 o'clock this morning Colonel J. M. Grace seemed to have a majority of 64, lacking in this city. A large number of challenged votes, however, will have to be passed upon before the result is determined.

In Face of Great Fight Is Re-elected Clerk of Circuit Court of Norfolk County. Norfolk, Va., November 7.—Alvah H. Martin, Republican National Committeeman from Virginia, won a decisive victory at Virginia, when in the face of a great fight with State Attorney J. W. Fickert, he was re-elected clerk of the Circuit Court of Norfolk county by a majority of more than 400 over the Democratic opponent, C. W. Coleman, who failed to poll as many votes as he received in the Democratic primary.

The vote was not as heavy as had been anticipated. The Straightouts did not poll as many votes as they did in the primary. Charges of irregularities are reported, and a contest is possible, although the Straightouts would not discuss what their action will be. Both sides worked hard all day to get out the voters, and the narrow margins were narrowly averted in several instances. Very little interest was taken in the election for members of the Legislature and a clerk of the Circuit Court in this city to-day. There was only one ticket in the field, and not more than 200 votes were cast.

The only surprise was the appearance of the name of Laurence Warring as the candidate for clerk of the City Circuit Court. Not a word had been printed in the newspapers about a candidate for this office being voted for as it was generally understood that the term of Mr. Warring did not expire until 1912. His name appeared on an act of the Legislature of 1909 changing the date to 1911, and need not be on the ballot without a contest. The secret, and thereby won his reelection for a term of eight years without opposition.

With returns from one precinct missing, Dr. Emerson Land has a lead in his votes over E. A. Keenan for clerk of the Circuit Court of Anne county. The missing precinct is probably in the land's majority. Dr. Land's majority is about sixty. The returns show Dr. Land received 507 votes and Mr. Keenan 525.

The contest was the bitterest in the history of the county, and it is pretty certain that Mr. Keenan, the republican incumbent, will contest the election. Party Nominees Go Through Without Sign of Opposition.

With no opposition to the nominees of the Democratic primary of September 26, the citizens of Chesterfield county took to the polls yesterday. The following ticket was elected: House Delegates, W. W. Baker, floater, W. S. Commons, Attorney, Haskins Hobson, Treasurer, D. M. Walker, Clerk, P. V. Corbitt, Sheriff, W. C. Gill.

Obituary Mrs. Sallie Ambrosselli, wife of J. M. Ambrosselli, of 1118 North Twenty-third street, died yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock at her home. She leaves, besides her husband, one daughter, Miss Gladys Ambrosselli; four sisters, Mrs. W. M. Matlines, of New Jersey; Mrs. M. L. Huff, of Charleston, W. Va.; Mrs. C. L. Arndt, of Richmond; and Miss Laura Irving, of Norfolk. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the Venable Street Baptist Church. Interment will be made in Oakwood Cemetery.

Crawford Miller. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Salisbury, N. C., November 7.—One of Howard's oldest and most respected citizens passed away yesterday when Crawford Miller died at his home near Salisbury. He was seventy-four years old, was a moderate temperance man and was greatly liked. He was at the head of a large and well-known family and leaves a wide circle of friends and acquaintances.

Mrs. Joseph Graham. William A. Graham, Jr., was called to Charlotte, N. C., yesterday by a telegram announcing the death of his mother, Mrs. Joseph Graham, widow of Dr. Joseph Graham, for years one of the leading physicians of his State. Mrs. Graham was born in England, and was the daughter of Mr. M. L. Huff, of Charleston, W. Va.; Mrs. C. L. Arndt, of Richmond; and Miss Laura Irving, of Norfolk. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the Venable Street Baptist Church. Interment will be made in Oakwood Cemetery.

W. M. Lamb. Charlottesville, Va., November 7.—W. M. Lamb, aged sixty-one, died yesterday at his home near Charlottesville, this county, after an illness of three weeks. He was a native of Greene county, and was a tender hearted and sympathetic and a benefactor of the poorer classes around him, both white and colored.

Mr. Bouldin possessed in a marked degree the attributes of the old-time Virginian. He loved his State, her history and traditions, the family circle of his home in Washington, his old home—all these he loved with the conservatism of the old school. My friend has gone forth from the circle of his family, and in the course of an eternal morning, and the author of this tribute counts his acquaintance with a noble and courageous man, a true friend, a kind neighbor. Conspicuous among his characteristics was his truthfulness. I believe it was associate with his courage was undaunted and his high sense of honor and justice never served an iota in all his business transactions. He was a tender hearted and sympathetic and a benefactor of the poorer classes around him, both white and colored.

Mr. Bouldin possessed in a marked degree the attributes of the old-time Virginian. He loved his State, her history and traditions, the family circle of his home in Washington, his old home—all these he loved with the conservatism of the old school. My friend has gone forth from the circle of his family, and in the course of an eternal morning, and the author of this tribute counts his acquaintance with a noble and courageous man, a true friend, a kind neighbor. Conspicuous among his characteristics was his truthfulness. I believe it was associate with his courage was undaunted and his high sense of honor and justice never served an iota in all his business transactions. He was a tender hearted and sympathetic and a benefactor of the poorer classes around him, both white and colored.

Mr. Bouldin possessed in a marked degree the attributes of the old-time Virginian. He loved his State, her history and traditions, the family circle of his home in Washington, his old home—all these he loved with the conservatism of the old school. My friend has gone forth from the circle of his family, and in the course of an eternal morning, and the author of this tribute counts his acquaintance with a noble and courageous man, a true friend, a kind neighbor. Conspicuous among his characteristics was his truthfulness. I believe it was associate with his courage was undaunted and his high sense of honor and justice never served an iota in all his business transactions. He was a tender hearted and sympathetic and a benefactor of the poorer classes around him, both white and colored.

Mr. Bouldin possessed in a marked degree the attributes of the old-time Virginian. He loved his State, her history and traditions, the family circle of his home in Washington, his old home—all these he loved with the conservatism of the old school. My friend has gone forth from the circle of his family, and in the course of an eternal morning, and the author of this tribute counts his acquaintance with a noble and courageous man, a true friend, a kind neighbor. Conspicuous among his characteristics was his truthfulness. I believe it was associate with his courage was undaunted and his high sense of honor and justice never served an iota in all his business transactions. He was a tender hearted and sympathetic and a benefactor of the poorer classes around him, both white and colored.

Mr. Bouldin possessed in a marked degree the attributes of the old-time Virginian. He loved his State, her history and traditions, the family circle of his home in Washington, his old home—all these he loved with the conservatism of the old school. My friend has gone forth from the circle of his family, and in the course of an eternal morning, and the author of this tribute counts his acquaintance with a noble and courageous man, a true friend, a kind neighbor. Conspicuous among his characteristics was his truthfulness. I believe it was associate with his courage was undaunted and his high sense of honor and justice never served an iota in all his business transactions. He was a tender hearted and sympathetic and a benefactor of the poorer classes around him, both white and colored.

Mr. Bouldin possessed in a marked degree the attributes of the old-time Virginian. He loved his State, her history and traditions, the family circle of his home in Washington, his old home—all these he loved with the conservatism of the old school. My friend has gone forth from the circle of his family, and in the course of an eternal morning, and the author of this tribute counts his acquaintance with a noble and courageous man, a true friend, a kind neighbor. Conspicuous among his characteristics was his truthfulness. I believe it was associate with his courage was undaunted and his high sense of honor and justice never served an iota in all his business transactions. He was a tender hearted and sympathetic and a benefactor of the poorer classes around him, both white and colored.

Dr. Lyon's PERFECT Tooth Powder cleanses, preserves and beautifies the teeth, prevents tooth decay and imparts purity and fragrance to the breath.

It's Selling Like Hot Cakes At 19 Cents a Copy. Publisher's Price 50c per copy. The New and Wonderful Descriptive March.

DECISIVE VICTORY FOR ALVAH MARTIN. In Face of Great Fight Is Re-elected Clerk of Circuit Court of Norfolk County.

DEATHS. TOMLINSON—Died, November 7, 1911, at 4 P. M., at residence of his daughter, 400 North Thirty-fourth Street, W. M. TOMLINSON, in his fifty-ninth year.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA. Don't Persecute your Bowels. Get out cathartics and purgatives. They are bad!

OBITUARY. Mrs. Sallie Ambrosselli, wife of J. M. Ambrosselli, of 1118 North Twenty-third street, died yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock at her home.

OBITUARY. Mrs. Joseph Graham. William A. Graham, Jr., was called to Charlotte, N. C., yesterday by a telegram announcing the death of his mother, Mrs. Joseph Graham, widow of Dr. Joseph Graham, for years one of the leading physicians of his State.

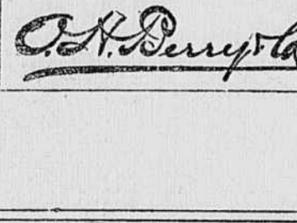

OBITUARY. W. M. Lamb. Charlottesville, Va., November 7.—W. M. Lamb, aged sixty-one, died yesterday at his home near Charlottesville, this county, after an illness of three weeks.

IN MEMORIAM. BOULDIN—In the death of CHARLES BEDDFORD BOULDIN, which occurred at Baltimore, Md., near Drake's Branch, in Charlottetown, Va., on the 22d of August, 1911, the community in which he lived has sustained a loss.

PLANTERS NATIONAL BANK. Richmond, Va. Established 1865. Capital $300,000.00. Surplus and Profits $1,300,000.00. Invites Your Account. 3 per cent. interest, compounded semi-annually.

This is our platform! Every plank spells satisfaction to every customer and we don't try to crawl out after election or after a sale. Argument: cloth and slim cut is the rule this season. Coats that cut into the figure; straight trousers; high vest, no fashion plate effect—all Berry made and we know 'em thru and thru. The exact styles that lead in Fifth Avenue, Broadway and Wall street are here.

WOMEN'S OUTER GARMENTS. THE BEST. SAUER'S. THE BEST. THE BEST. THE BEST.

WOMEN'S OUTER GARMENTS. THE BEST. SAUER'S. THE BEST. THE BEST. THE BEST.

WOMEN'S OUTER GARMENTS. THE BEST. SAUER'S. THE BEST. THE BEST. THE BEST.

WOMEN'S OUTER GARMENTS. THE BEST. SAUER'S. THE BEST. THE BEST. THE BEST.

WOMEN'S OUTER GARMENTS. THE BEST. SAUER'S. THE BEST. THE BEST. THE BEST.

WOMEN'S OUTER GARMENTS. THE BEST. SAUER'S. THE BEST. THE BEST. THE BEST.

WOMEN'S OUTER GARMENTS. THE BEST. SAUER'S. THE BEST. THE BEST. THE BEST.

WOMEN'S OUTER GARMENTS. THE BEST. SAUER'S. THE BEST. THE BEST. THE BEST.

WOMEN'S OUTER GARMENTS. THE BEST. SAUER'S. THE BEST. THE BEST. THE BEST.

WOMEN'S OUTER GARMENTS. THE BEST. SAUER'S. THE BEST. THE BEST. THE BEST.